To Whom It May Concern:

The Colloquy committee at Bucknell University is in the process of organizing a Spring Colloquy on the World Economic Crisis, February 27-28 and March 1, 1975. It is our intention to bring in people from outside the University who have some expertise (either through experience or research) in various aspects of the recent domestic and international economic crises. With respect to topics, we hope to cover food, energy and oil, recession and unemployment in the U.S., the international monetary situation, environmental considerations, the policy response, and so on. In this way we hope to provide a stimulating intellectual and educational experience for the Bucknell community.

The purpose of this letter is to make a preliminary inquiry of your institution to find out whether or not you have any people able to participate in our program. The format of the program will involve a series of workshops on different aspects and issues of the crisis, perhaps some debates, and possible participation in scheduled classes in the University.

We would appreciate it very much if you could let us know sometime soon if you have any staff people who might be willing and able to relate to this program, and, if so, what their areas of interest and expertise are. If you have any questions about Bucknell or about the Colloquy, please don't hesitate to call me or write to me. Thank you very much for your time and consideration.

For the Colloquy Committee,

John Garrett
Colloquy Co-ordinator
